24” Magnetic I-Beam Level w/ 45° Vial

The Empire® Level 24-Inch I-Beam Magnetic Level W/45-Degree Vial holds firmly to ferrous metal surfaces such as conduits or pipes. It has three durable acrylic vials set at 0, 90 and 45 degrees for accuracy. The center vial is visible from above through the upper port window, allowing you to use the level from various angles. The Empire Level beveled end caps level uses an I-beam design for enhanced strength. The body is lightweight at 1.37 pounds and is built with tough rounded plastic end caps to protect it from damage. The Empire Level 24-inch aluminum magnetic level is crafted with heavy-duty machine screws for extended life. Ergonomic gripping surfaces provide comfortable handling and extra holes make storing your level quick and easy. The blue anodized Empire finish resists rust and improves visibility.
